To Whom It May Concern:

I have enjoyed my years representing the State of Oklahoma and Leflore County as an Election Board official for many years. This appointment has shown me what a great system that Oklahoma has for voting and how secure and accurate our system is after recent events in our country. I have been involved in many recounts and have yet to see one that did not come out the same as the election night returns. This is very comforting to me as it should be to all Oklahoman's.

I have decided to seek a seat on the Spiro Town Council and with great regret tender my resignation from the State Election Board effective immediately.

It has been a great honor to represent this great state and the Oklahoma State Election Board.
