Dear Senator Howard:

I am writing this letter to inform you of my retirement effective August 31, 2021. I was appointed on August 1, 2001, I will have served in this position for 20 years.

It has been my honor to serve the people of Kiowa County as Secretary of the Kiowa County Election Board. I have been privileged to work with other County offices throughout the State of Oklahoma and have made lifelong friends. Our Election process is all possible because of the guidance, support and friendship of the State Election Board personnel. It has been a personal pleasure to work with Paul Ziriaux and Pam Slater.

If you have any questions, please contact me. I am also sending a copy of this letter to Paul Ziriaux at the State Election board.

Sincerely,

Lynne Morris, Secretary
Kiowa County Election Board

I, Sarilea Combs, do hereby resign my position as Republican Alternate of the Atoka County Election Board effective immediately.

Sarilea Combs

STATE ELECTION
BOARD

Dear Mr. Ziriaux:

I currently serve as the Democratic member on the Bryan County Election Board, and I have made our local secretary, Kim Norris, aware that I will be resigning on August 1, 2021, following the last scheduled election in Bryan County this year.

Our county currently doesn't have an active Democratic Party, and my efforts to recruit a Democrat have been unsuccessful, as many people simply don't have the time to devote to serving on the Board.

I send this letter well in advance of my resignation, in hopes that it will allow enough time to find a replacement. Thank you for allowing me to serve my county and state over the past six years.

Sincerely,

Chance Wimberley
