

POETRY & SHORT STORY REFERENCE CENTER SCAVENGER HUNT

Answer the following questions to familiarize yourself with EBSCO's poetry and short story database.

What are three ways you can browse or search from the homepage?

Who is the featured author? How many search results do you get when you search for articles about them?

What types of results did you get? List 3-4. Hint: locate Source Types in the filter menu on the left.

Using this search or by starting a new one, locate a lesson plan about an author. What grade level is it? Hint: this is a source type

How can you email this article to save it for yourself or share it with someone else?

Locate a full text ebook. Find the Cite option and list at least 2 types of citations available.

Navigate back to the homepage. Under Browse, look for an infographic. What result did you find and what type of graphic was it?

What is one takeaway you've learned from exploring this database?

