Hiett Elected Chairman

Oklahoma Corporation Commissioner Todd Hiett has been elected Chairman of the Commission in a unanimous vote by the Commissioners, effective April 1.

Hiett has served as vice chairman of the Commission since February 1, 2017, with Commissioner Dana Murphy serving as Chairman.

Hiett is serving his first term as a Corporation Commissioner, taking office in January 2015.

The Commissioners also elected Commissioner Bob Anthony as vice chairman. Anthony first took office in January 1989.

Oklahoma Corporation Commissioners hold statewide elected office, and are now limited to two six-year terms.

The Oklahoma Corporation Commission oversees the state's energy, transportation and utility sectors.
