Noble County Free Fair 2019

Junior Swine Showmanship Brady Petree

by Madison Henderson

4-H and FFA members from across Noble county demonstrated their hard work and dedication on September 12th, 2019 at the Noble County Fairgrounds.

The swine show was the last show of the Noble County Fall Fair. The judge, Colten Blehm, evaluated both open and junior gilt show, market barrow show, as well as the showmanship contest.

The Morrison community really brought home the bacon during this year's show. Brady Petree of the Morrison 4-H exhibited her Supreme Champion, followed by Aubrey Mahon of the Morrison FFA who exhibited the Reserve Supreme Gilt.

Ethan Petree represented the Morrison FFA Chapter well, winning Grand Champion Market Hog. Rachel Swinford of Morrison FFA was named Reserve Champion Market Hog.

Following the conclusion of the barrow show, exhibitors participated in the showmanship contest. For many showman, winning Showmanship is one of the highest awards they can receive for their ability to present their animal, as well as the knowledge of their swine project.

This year's winners are in the Senior Division, grades 10th to 12th, Seneca Poulton representing the Morrison FFA chapter; Intermediate winner, grades 7th to 9th, was Rachel Swinford from the Morrison FFA Chapter; Junior champion, grades 3rd through 6th was awarded to Brady Petree of Morrison 4-H.
