Discover OKLAHOMA.

Discover Oklahoma and find "a brand new state" rich in Western and Indian culture and adorned with sparkling lakes, streams and mountains. From the volcanic beginnings of the Panhandle's Black Mesa to the southern pines of the Ouachita National Forest near Broken Bow, Oklahoma's frontier cities, Indian powwows, rodeos and local festivals put on with pride.

Follow Oklahoma's highways to out-of-the-way places. Six one of Oklahoma's 200 lakes, take a canoe down a wild and scenic river or hike a mountain ridge trail to enjoy the natural settings Oklahoma has to offer. Camp in any of the hundreds of state or private camping areas in Oklahoma. Most state parks provide for tent camping and many have RV sites with full hookups!

Luxurious resorts are located at five state parks and rental cabins are available in nine more. Oklahoma resorts boast golf courses, tennis courts, riding stables, swimming pools, restaurants, marinas, fishing docks, naturalist programs, meeting facilities, organized recreation, comfortable rooms and cottages.

Oklahoma lakeshore resorts include: Western Hills Golf Ranch on Lake Fort Gibson in northeastern Oklahoma's Sequoyah State Park; Quartz Mountain Resort on Lake Altus-Lugert in the southwest; Roman Nose Resort near Lake Boecher and Lake Watonga to the northwest, and Lake Murray and Lake Texoma Resorts on lakes of the same name in southern Oklahoma.

For reservations at any of the five resorts or nine state parks with cabins, in Oklahoma call toll-free 1-800-652-6552. Oklahoma City residents can call 521-2464. Nationwide call toll-free 1-800-652-6552.
