OHCA Director Receives Top Honor for Patient Advocacy

The Oklahoma Health Care Authority (OHCA) congratulates SoonerCare Provider Services Director Melody Anthony for being named the 2014 Patient Advocate of the Year by the Oklahoma Academy of Family Physicians (OAFP). Ms. Anthony is honored for her "outstanding commitment" and for promoting the specialty of Family Medicine for the benefit of her fellow Oklahomans.

"Melody's trusted and capable work with our medical professionals helps to ensure that SoonerCare members receive the best care possible," said CEO Nico Gomez. "She is a valuable part of the OHCA team, and we couldn't be more pleased that she has received such a distinguished honor from the very people she works so tirelessly to serve."

Melody Anthony has more than 20 years of experience in health care, both in the private and public sectors. As director of Provider Services for OHCA, Ms. Anthony is responsible for provider recruitment, contracting, retention, claims resolution, compliance, policy education and development for the SoonerCare program (Oklahoma Medicaid). Additionally, Ms. Anthony is a key member of OHCA's Medical Home Health Access Network team and she is agency lead for the Comprehensive Primary Care (CPC) initiative through the Innovation Center at the national Centers for Medicare and Medicaid (the CPC initiative is a multi-payer initiative fostering collaboration between public and private health care payers to strengthen primary care). Ms. Anthony holds a Master's of Science in Management.

Ms. Anthony was nominated as Patient Advocate of the Year by members of the OAFP and said she felt extremely humbled and honored to be selected. Nominators referred to her as the "mother of the patient-centered medical home," the "'go to' person for SoonerCare operational issues," and "the ultimate patient advocate."

"I'm very pleased that someone who works for the state Medicaid agency is recognized by a provider organization," Anthony said. "I think it says a lot about OHCA's commitment to the populations we serve and the providers who help us reach that commitment."

Ms. Anthony received her award at OAFP's 66th Annual Scientific Assembly on June 20.
