Oklahoma's Federally-Facilitated Marketplace (FFM)

2

- All states will have an Insurance Exchange or Insurance Marketplace where consumers can directly compare, purchase, and enroll in Qualified Health Plans (QHPs) through an online portal
- The United States Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) through the Center for Consumer Information and Insurance Oversight (CCIIO) will implement and operate a Federally-Facilitated Marketplace (FFM) in Oklahoma
- Consumers (with incomes between 100-400% of the Federal Poverty Level) can apply for Advanced Premium Tax Credits (APTCs)

The screenshot shows the Healthcare.gov website in a Windows Internet Explorer browser. The page features a blue header with the site logo and navigation links for 'Learn' and 'Get Insurance'. Below the header, there are navigation tabs for 'Individuals & Families', 'Small Businesses', and 'All Topics', along with a search bar. The main content area is a green banner with a woman's face on the right. On the left, a blue box highlights the 'Open Enrollment' period from October 1, 2013, to March 31, 2014. The central text reads 'The Health Insurance Marketplace is coming soon' and includes a green button labeled 'SEE YOUR OPTIONS ». A red banner on the right says 'PLAN & COST INFO COMING OCT 1'. At the bottom, a dark grey bar contains a sign-up form for 'GET IMPORTANT NEWS & UPDATES' with a 'SIGN UP' button, which is circled in red. Below this bar are three links: 'What is the Health Insurance', 'What is the Marketplace in my', and 'What if I have job based insurance?'. A blue box on the right side of the page provides contact information: 'Enroll online or by phone', 'Healthcare.gov', and '1-800-318-2596'.
