Norman Utilities Authority has approximately 40,000 water meters across its service area. Most of the meters are read manually except for 2,000 that are read via AMR using a handheld reader. A large portion of the utility's meters are nearing or past the expected life span. The proposed project is to install approximately 40,000 automatic meters, the electronics required to automatically transmit meter readings to the Authority, and all appurtenances required to complete the project.
